

Young Entrepreneur \neq Entrepreneurship Education \pm Big Five Personal Traits?

Invited speech

SILESIA UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
ADMINISTRATION IN KATOWICE

Ana Iolanda Voda

Alexandru Ioan Cuza University,
Iasi, Romania

- Entrepreneurship and employability initiative at the Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, Iasi, Romania
- Sample study 1. Impact of Personality Traits and Entrepreneurial Education on Entrepreneurial Intentions of Business and Engineering Students
 - Voda, A.I., Florea, N., (2019), Sustainability (Special Issue: Researching Entrepreneurship at different levels: Micro, Meso and Macro)
- Sample study 2. Examining the effects of creativity and willingness to take risk on young student's entrepreneurial intentions
 - Voda A.I., Martinez I., Tiganas C.G., Maha L.G., Filipeanu D. (2019), Transformations in Business and Economics
- Sample study 3. Measuring the Big Five Personality Traits effects on manager's propensity to take risks
 - Anastasiei B., Voda, A.I., Florea N., Filipeanu D., (2020, forthcoming –under evaluation)
- Sample study 4. Is a higher minimum wage associated with a higher youth employment rate? A panel data analysis (2020, forthcoming), European Journal of International Management
 - Voda A.I., Bercu A.M., Šebestová J.

Content: thematic propositions

- Proposition 1: Fostering entrepreneurship through university education and training increase youth intentions to engage in entrepreneurship?
- Proposition 2: Does locus of control and need for achievement influence youth intentions to engage in venture creation?
- Proposition 3: Big Five personality traits do have a significant impact on the attitude towards risk, especially on the dimension that concerns the inclination for profits or security?
- Proposition 4: Increasing the minimum wage have a huge impact of the employment opportunities especially for youth, reflected in high unemployment rates?